THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two

Alphabets ensuing.

O O D Christian Reader, because thou mayest enjoy and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions with Common places hereafter following, which I have in maner of a briefe Concordance, or large & ample Index, collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy comoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, yie, and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen ynto thee, that in the first of the said Alphabets, I have together placed by themselves in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to bee found here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrewe, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages : to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, Historie, Common places, and knowledge of them, and every of them, as I truft thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in divers translations these strange names & words are written diuerfly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, followed the Genema translation, asmost allowed in that behalfe, and yet have placed in the Margent thereof, how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the end not only such corruptions as are found for want of y true Otthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skilful in those: languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already)but also the viskilful Readers be not defrauded of such commodity, as might grow vinto them thereby, especially if they should have occasion to looke for any word in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read it in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the said Alphabers, I have likewise by themselues placed all, and as many proper and vsual English words, as are con-teined in the same Bible, conducing to the finding out of the most fixest sentences, and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian faith & religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessary instruction : To as if thou wouldest understand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God or his power, his wisdome, or his love, his mercie, or his trueth, his inflice, his promisfes, his plagues, or his punishments . c.either else cocerning Christ, or the holy Ghos, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Law, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vabeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, luft fication, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c.or to be briefe, if thou wouldest understand what is necessarily to bee learned in the same Scriptures, touching the efrate, authoritic office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Judges or Magistrates, Bishops & Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subjects, and Parishioners, Husbands & Wines, Children and servants, and how every one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of ought to behave themselves towards God, and one towards another, and wharis to be spoken and not spoken, and what: is to be done and left vindone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods word: thou are: not voyd of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, any thing whereof I have before made mention, thou are to refort Alphabetically voto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citic, Place, River, Idole, &c. in the same conteined : and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or comon place therein mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or defireft to be satisfied of: and by that meaner in cuery of them thalt thou by Gods grace, without faile be conduced, and to thy great eafe directed, and as it were, ledde by the hand, euen to the Booke, Chapter and Verle, where the fame, (or fo much thereof, as for a godly, Christian, and necessary knowledge shall bee thought requifite) is to bee found out most readily : alwayes remembring, that what focuer convenient knowledge wanteth in these Alphabets, as touching the text whereunto it direcetth thee, is there supplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreouer, good Christian Reader, thou hast also to obserue how that the first Figure, or Figures. which followe next after any Booke whereunto thou shalt bee guided, significth or signific the Chapter, and the other the verse or verses of the same Chapter, where any of the forefaid things is to be fought for. Againe, where as thou shalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after some verse or verses of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starte * quoted, thou art to vnderstand, how that the whole Chapter, or from the verse of that Chapter where the same Starre is placed forward ynto the ende thereof, entreateth, or in some good respects chiefly belongeth, and may be applyed to the same Historie, matter, or common place thou seekest for, except there be any verses following the same *, for then the common place is to be vnderstoode, not to exceede those verses. Finally, whereas I have sometimes in these Alphabets partly fet downe the fenfe, & that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very words themselves; and otherwhiles repeated one thing in divers places, but yet to divers ends : I trust that wil not offend thee, fith I have fo done for the valearneds (ake, because the same could not me can be made too plaine for them, and therefore have yied not fo great a curiofitie and abbreviation in that behalfe, as perhaps some others would have had me: & yet considering to what a great quantity these two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I have bene forced to leave out somewhat, that otherwise I would have added ynto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will supply: thus much touching the principall contentes, comodity, & vse of the aforefaid Alphabets, which with fuch other doubts as may trouble thee, I mistrust not, but by well peruling of the same, and practise (with the diversitie of letter, which is vied in them) will soone appeare very easie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not every of them. Now therfore to conclude, if my simple travaile and paines taken herein shalbe wel accepted of thee, I meane, of the more skilful and learned Readers to be polished and amended of them (if they shall so deeme necessary and convenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be joynt members, helpers, and furtherers, so farre forth as their Talents wil ftretch vnto, and that in the spirit of meekeneffe, fobrictie, and charitie: and of the leffe learned or vnlearned Reader (ynto whom I confesse my selfe the greatest debtour) as an aid and helpe to their godly studies, and honest trade of life, and with al Christianly to be construed of al men, as a meanes and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I shall for my part thinke my selfe well requited, and more then sufficiently rewarded, in that I shall enjoy my desire, and that which I longed for, And so be seeching Alonghtie God to give vs his grace to be studious of vinite, and bringing forth such fruites, as may declare our vindoubted election in Christ Iesus, I take my leave of thee, this xxii of December.

Anno Domini.
